BGC COMPLETES NEW RESTAURANT IN ANNAPOLIS

New Fast Casual Restaurant has Successful Opening

ANNAPOLIS, Md. – Punk’s Backyard Grill, a new, fast casual restaurant concept that re-creates the classic American backyard cookout, opened at the Westfield Mall in Annapolis on February 1, 2009. Occupying approximately 3,800 square feet, including an outdoor patio, Punk’s Backyard Grill seats approximately 125 guests. The three co-founders of Punk’s Backyard Grill, Sheila Laderberg, David McCabe, and Jeffrey Sloan, developed the concept for the restaurant while graduate students at Cornell University’s School of Hotel Administration in New York in 2005.

“This is our first Punk’s Backyard Grill location, and we are excited to become a part of the Annapolis community,” said Sheila Laderberg, co-founder of Punk’s Backyard Grill. “We specifically chose to open the first Punk’s in Annapolis because it is a vibrant, up and coming area, with young professionals and families, as well as many visitors to the city. We think this combination will work out well for Punk’s fast casual concept.”

“We are also looking forward to expanding and opening other Punk’s Backyard Grills throughout the region,” added Laderberg.

BuilderGuru Contracting, Inc. was very excited to be a part of a new concept. “It is always nice to work with enthusiastic clients, and see their dream come to fruition. We are looking forward to being part of the team for many more projects in the future,” states Todd Haynie, co-owner of BGC. According to co-founder David McCabe, who oversaw the build-out, “One of the highlights of this long process has been our relationship with BGC. They built a beautiful restaurant for us, and they were a pleasure to deal with. We look forward to working with them again in the future.”
